The Symposium for Goodness' Sake is tailored for non-profit and faith-based organizations interested in learning the essentials behind the inner workings of Community First! Village and how they can get started on a similar project with purpose.

Those passionate about transforming the landscape of homelessness where they live will be empowered by the paradigm-breaking, faith-based approach to caring for the chronically homeless with compassion and dignity that is shared at the Symposium for Goodness' Sake.

The Symposium for Goodness' Sake is far more than a simple overview of Mobile Loaves & Fishes and the Community First! Village. Attendees participate in an interactive immersive learning experience. The essential components that have enabled Mobile Loaves & Fishes to create and cultivate the beauty that is the Community First! Village will be presented. These components include organizational culture, leadership, community empowerment, property management, neighbor care, funding and so much more. Additionally, attendees will be exposed to the Community First! philosophies, values, and approach which make Mobile Loaves & Fishes' work unique and distinctively effective.

Through presentations, interactive talks & panel, and an in-depth tour of the Community First! Village, the Mobile Loaves & Fishes team will be sharing more the  Early bird discount worth of experience and insight building, and fulfilling endeavor of transforming your community. We invite you to jump in!

To get the complete Village experience we encourage all attendees to stay onsite at the Village in our Community Inn. The Symposium For Goodness' Sake Eventbrite ticket does NOT automatically include lodging, as we only have a limited number of units available at this time. However, we encourage attendees to explore available units and book their accommodations online at The Community Inn.

Participation Release:

By registering for the Symposium, you agree to the terms and conditions of the Mobile Loaves & Fishes Visitor Agreement. Please review this agreement in the link provided.

Symposium Cancellation/Transfer Policy:

ALL SYMPOSIUM TICKET PURCHASES ARE FINAL. If you are unable to attend the Symposium, you may transfer your registration to another staff member, board member or volunteer who is involved with your organization or ministry. It is the responsibility of the original registered attendee to identify their replacement. All registration transfer requests must be sent to education@mlf.org and MUST BE RECEIVED ONE WEEK prior to the event date.
